

Menu icon prompts

One prompt for each of the twelve guides in the Daily Grace menu. Each prompt is complete on its own: paste one box into the image generator to get one icon. To keep the whole set consistent, you can first try the set prompt below, which asks for all twelve icons in one image.

What every icon must be

The menu shows each icon at 18 by 18 pixels inside a white circle of its own, so the icon itself has no circle, border or background. It is an outline drawing on a 24 by 24 grid with one 2px stroke, round ends and corners, no fills and no text, in a single colour (navy #001B34). The page recolours it through `currentColor`, so the SVG should use `stroke="currentColor"`.

Set prompt: all twelve icons at once

PROMPT (copy everything in this box)

A set of twelve matching SVG icons for a Bible study app, laid out in a grid of four columns and three rows with generous spacing, in this order: 1. Books of the Bible: three upright books standing side by side on a short shelf line, of slightly different heights, the middle book with a small plain cross on its spine, suggesting a library of many books; 2. Bible Characters: two people shown head and shoulders, one slightly behind the other, both in simple robes with head coverings, the front figure holding a shepherd's crook; 3. Peoples of the Bible: a map location pin standing on a simple folded paper map made of three panels, with one wavy line across the map for a river; 4. Prayers in the Bible: two hands pressed together in prayer, fingers pointing straight up, seen from the side, with a short sleeve cuff at the bottom of each wrist; 5. Poems, Songs and Wisdom: an ancient lyre, the harp of King David: a U-shaped wooden frame with two curved arms, a crossbar at the top and three vertical strings; 6. Red-Lettered Quotes: a rounded speech bubble with a small tail at the lower left, holding a pair of opening quotation marks drawn as two simple curved commas; 7. Heroes and Villains: a round shield seen from the front with a short straight sword passing diagonally behind it, the hilt at the upper right and the tip at the lower left; 8. Flora and Fauna: a dove in flight seen from the side, wings raised, carrying a small olive sprig with two leaves in its beak; 9. Supernaturals and Prophecies: a pair of outspread angel wings, one on each side, curving upward, with a small four-pointed star shining in the space between them; 10. Commandments of God: two stone tablets with rounded tops standing side by side and touching, each with three short horizontal lines standing for engraved text; 11. Questions We All Ask: a small ancient clay oil lamp seen from the side, with a handle at one end and a single teardrop flame rising from the spout at the other, as in "thy word is a lamp unto my feet"; 12. Following God's Blueprint: a closed Bible with a small cross on its cover and a ribbon bookmark, standing in front of an unrolled blueprint scroll with a simple floor plan drawn on it, the scroll curling at its right edge. Each icon follows the same rules. Style: a minimal outline icon in the manner of a modern UI icon set such as Lucide or Feather. Drawn on a 24 by 24 grid with one uniform 2px stroke, round line caps and round joins, no fills, no gradients, no shading and no text or letters. One colour only, deep navy #001B34, on a transparent background. Centred with about 2px of empty space on every side, and simple enough to read clearly at 18 pixels wide. It belongs to a matching set of twelve icons for a Bible study app called Daily Grace, so keep the line weight and level of detail identical across the set. Output: one clean SVG per icon with `viewBox="0 0 24 24"`, `fill="none"`, `stroke="currentColor"`, `stroke-width="2"`, `stroke-linecap="round"` and `stroke-linejoin="round"`, built from a few simple paths, with no embedded images, no background shape and no surrounding circle. Avoid labels, backgrounds, circle frames, shadows, colour other than navy, and any text.

1. Books of the Bible

Avoid: a house, tools, a ruler, a compass, rays or sparkles, and any background, border, circle frame, shadow, 3D effect, colour other than navy, or text.

Checking what comes back

Before an icon goes into the menu, open the SVG and check that: the viewBox is 0 0 24 24; it uses stroke="currentColor" and fill="none" rather than a fixed colour; it has no background rectangle, circle frame or embedded image; the lines are one even weight; and it is still recognisable at 18 pixels wide beside the other ten. Generators often return filled shapes or extra detail; if so, ask again with "outline only, fewer lines" added to the prompt.
